AN ERROR CORRECTED.

Farmville's Ice and Cold Storage Plant Owned by One Man.
Farmville, Va., August 8.—In the excellent illustrated write up of Farmville, which appeared in last Sunday's Industrial Section, one error was made in the statement that the ice and cold storage plant is owned by a company, of which W. C. Newman is president and general manager. This is a mistake, as the plant is owned by W.
C. Newman individually, as owned by other persons having an interest in it whatever.

STOCK EXHIBITS AT THE STATE FAIR

In All Lines the Annual Show Will Be the Largest Yet.

The stock exhibits at the forthcoming State Fair promise to be the most complete and comprehensive ever presented in Richmond.

From all over the country will come droves of sheep, cattle, of every class, hogs and blue ribbon and blue-blooded horses.

Already the sections set aside for such exhibits have been enlarged to accommodate the many entries. It will be remembered that last year the State Fair gave to the public one of the largest and best stock shows ever seen in Virginia. This year promises to beat that.

Among some of the leading exhibitors will be W. B. Bullock, of Manassas, who will show fourteen head of Percherons and Hackney stallions; J. L.
Dodge, of Middletown, N. Y., will have a large herd of horses both for the races and for exhibition; E. F. Somers, of Somerset, will exhibit a large number of swine; W. E. Van Natta and Sons, of Fowler, Indiana, will have a herd of twenty-five Herefords, and the Elmdorf Farm, of Lexington, Ky., will have a herd of short horns and a drove of Shropshire sheep. These are just a few of the prominent exhibitors, most of whom have exhibited here before.

The entries in this department close Thursday, September 21st, and any one wishing a premium list may secure one by application at headquarters in the Mutual Building.

The presence at the fair during the entire week of October 9th, of a number of the directors of the Stock Yards Company of Chicago, means much for the stock raiser of Virginia. The Westerners are looking for land, and expect to locate several ranches in this State. They will, while in Richmond entertain in their reception tent all the live stock exhibitors at the fair.
Among those expected are Messrs. Armour, Fabst and Swift.

In the swine department, in addition to the usual prizes offered by the Chamber of Commerce - Berkshire Association has offered a special prize for the best herd of Berkshires consisting of a boar and three sows. The prize will be a silver loving cup valued at $50, and to this the Fair Association has added a second prize of $10 in cash and a third prize of $5. It is necessary that the animals competing for these prizes be registered in the record of the National Berkshire Association, the headquarters of which are at Springfield, Illinois. Frank S.
Springer, of this city, is the secretary and he will furnish any proposed competitor for the loving cup any desired information. Only Virginia grown Berkshires can compete.

GREENSBORO'S GOOD WORK.

Big Money Spent for Improvements.—Wonderful Increase in Real Estate Value.—The Chamber of Commerce is circulating statistics showing that since 1900 the city government has spent $350,816 upon waterworks, $12,000 for a city hall, $40,000 for from $1,641.43 to $4,990,000, and that the annual expenditures for buildings have increased from $125,000 to $231,540. In the same period the taxable values of property in Guilford county have increased from $5,970, 000 to $22,778,000.

MONEY IN SAWDUST NEW KIND OF FUEL

Virg. In Discovered Process by Which Piles of Waste Is Made Valuable.

Some statisticians have tried to figure out how much Americans waste every year through carelessness, ignorance and otherwise, but they have never yet reached a satisfactory conclusion in dollars and cents. It has however, been demonstrated that the people of the United States throw away more than any people on the globe, and every year let millions upon millions of dollars' worth of valuable raw material of one kind and another go to naught.

Charles T. O'Ferrall, Jr., formerly of Richmond, now of Dillon, S. C., has been for several years making a study of this matter of wastefulness, and wondering to what use the vast piles of sawdust to be found around every sawmill site in the land can be probably put. His studies along this line have resulted, so he tells, in the Times-Dispatch, in the discovery of a process by which millions of dollars can be gathered out of sawdust piles. His process has been patented and he says he is now prepared to convert sawdust into a fuel far superior to coal or wood. One of his saw dust "bricklets," not much larger than a man's hand, he says, will cook a meal, and a ton of his sawdust "bricklets" can be than a ton of the best coal that was ever mined. And what is still more important, Mr. O'Ferrall claims that a ton of his saw dust "bricklets" can be made ready for the furnace or the stove and placed beside them for use for considerably less than a ton of coal can be taken from the mine.

The inventor, who was in Richmond a few days ago, is organizing a stock company to manufacture and place upon the market this newly discovered fuel and steam generator.

HIGHLAND PLANS GREAT EXHIBITION

Showing of Live Stock Association Will Be Made at Monterey.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Monterey, Va., September 9.—The second annual exhibition of the Highland Live Stock Association will be held here on September 13, 14 and 15, and the interest manifested in the exhibition is very gratifying.

The initial effort last year was mad with but little preparation and with a minimum amount of enthusiasm, but it proved a great success, and this season the people of the county are unit in their determination to make it the biggest ever pulled off at Monterey.

The directors have expended about $1,500 in fitting up the grounds, have a quarter-mile course, a handsome grandstand with a capacity of 1,500, and some sixty stock sheds or stalls.
The entries and prizes to date are in excess of what was anticipated, and the very best that the county can muster in the form of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs is being trained and groomed for the occasion.
A record-breaking crowd is looked
